

Translation Services

The nature of today's business requires most companies to deal with global markets. In doing so, it is crucial to deliver a clear message about your company to your global audience. Hiring us will give you the edge over competition by achieving your communication goals.

We offer two-way document translation services from English into Spanish, German, Malay, Polish, Russian, and Ukrainian languages and vice versa. We are able to provide fast turnaround times for most translation projects. For your convenience we work with electronic versions of your documents, web sites, and instruction manuals.

Examples of some of the documents we can translate include:

- Technical articles
- Magazine/newspaper articles
- Financial statements
- Pricelists
- Presentations
- Catalogues
- Flyers
- Job manuals
- Legal contracts
- Websites
- Reference guides
- Employee Handbooks

Transcription

We can provide audio transcription services in English, Spanish, German, Malay, Polish, Russian, and Ukrainian languages.

Interpretation

We specialize in consecutive interpreting services in English, Spanish, German, Malay, Polish, Russian, and Ukrainian languages. Our specialty includes phone interpretation (e.g. conference calls), court interpretation, on-site interpretation (e.g. business meetings), and medical interpretation.

Quality of work

Most of our translators and interpreters are native speakers of their respective language.
